Brainstorms.....

With Ferrin Cox

We mentioned a couple of weeks ago about seeing a hawk flying away with a snake in its grasp. This was the first time we ever saw such a thing, but it just shows we are behind. Mrs. Janice Bell came by the office and showed us a picture in the new World Book of a hawk doing just what we wrote about. Apparently it ain't so unusual after all.

It is that season to be jolly, but so many of our fellow citizens feel they have missed something during the year and are just the opposite of jolly. We hope they will downplay those missed goals and concentrate on the positive things that have happened . . . the greatest being that they are still here to make that decision. We understand the hassle of preparation getting to someone but again look at the bright side and count your blessings. We wish you and yours a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Best wishes for a bright, and merry Christmas

The Elba Tigers lost to New Brockton Tuesday night to fall to 2-4 for the season, but the Tigers hustled throughout the game and really gave it all they had! After six games it's obvious that Elba is not a threat to win a state title; however, the team has tons of desire and is well-coached. So I still think more wins are on the way.

The high school basketball scene is stopped for the holidays, so I'll tell you how I rate the county teams after three weeks of action . ***Kinston rolled up 99 points in a win over Paxton and continue to amaze me. The Bulldogs aren't supposed to win a lot of games, but Coach Pete Kelley and his bunch are running wild and the wins are already piling up. ***New Brockton is short on depth, but not on talent, and appears to once again be a solid 2A team. The Gamecocks will scrap with anybody and if they keep improving -- watch out.

***Zion Chapel has lost two straight games and now is the time to see just how good the Rebels really are. The Rebels have plenty of talent and can beat anybody, so now is the time to prove what they are made of.

Charles Henderson High of Troy fired football coach Bobby Lee last week in a move that had long been rumored. Coach Lee led the Trojans to a 7-3 record in '83, but slipped to 0-9 this season and the people who hire (and fire) coaches felt it was time to change. A won-loss record is not always an indication of a coach's true value; however, it is the yardstick used in

The Elba Tigers didn't always do That one broke his toe. We could always find some reason for having a rotten season.

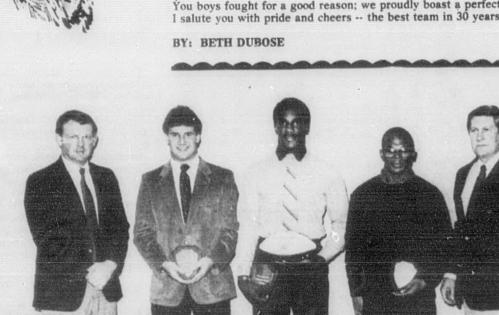

But all last summer you'd find the faithful few working -- their bodies to build Then they donned their pads and helmets too and took to the practice field. Then starting in the August heat with blood and sweat and tears, The Elba Tigers bared their teeth and put away their fears.

It all paid off with the first game score. The Tigers were ready to go! Who could possible ask for more? With Elba 28 - T-Town - Zero! demonstrate outstanding Hinton brought his boys in September, to put up the Cats for a match. That was 50 points they'll remember, while licking each wound and scratch. By the time we went to Pike County, we wanted a title as bounty, We were fighting for more and more -- we won it - 33 to 24!

The second win was pure Heaven, when we beat Troy 31 - 7. Andalusia was next on our list. The Bulldogs growled, the Tigers hissed. But the fur-pulling turned out to be few, when we doubled their score 42 - 21. Channel 12 brought us fame - November brought our last game. We swept Daleville under the door with their 6 and us 34.

You boys fought for a good reason; we proudly boast a perfect season. I salute you with pride and cheers -- the best team in 30 years!
